

Charlotte S. Schlichtmann

January 17, 1928 - September 22, 2018

Charlotte Schlichtmann, a former mathematics teacher in Northport, New York, died on September 22 at her home in Media, Pennsylvania. She was 90 years old.

She was born in New York City, and grew up in Emerson, N.J. She was a graduate of Westwood High School. Encouraged by a family who had high expectations and a belief in education, she earned an A.B. from Montclair State Teachers College in 1949, and a M.A. in Geography from Northwestern University in 1950.

She joined the faculty of Northport Junior High School in 1967 and touched the lives of Northport students for twenty-five years. Prior to her teaching career, she was active in civic affairs and was an officer for the League of Women Voters of Huntington.

After retirement, she and her husband spent winters in New Smyrna Beach, Florida, and summers in Northport. She was a prolific, award-winning quilter, and an active member of the Smithtown Stitchers on Long Island and the Pelican Piecemakers Quilt Guild in Florida. She joyously shared her beautiful creations with family and friends.

She is survived by Frederick Schlichtmann, her husband of 67 years; her brother Alan Stubing; children Paul (Rieko Tanaka) and Carol (David Bellamy); grandchildren Emma Bellamy and Meredith Bellamy Thorson (Brian Thorson); and great-grandchildren, Elsie and Olivia.

The family plans a celebration of her life in January.

“ Mrs. Schlichtmann was a wonderful, inspiring teacher and a lovely person. I remember a fun evening she hosted for her math students at her home in the mid-1980s. My condolences to the family.

“ Carol and Dave and family--i am so sorry for your loss--now is when those wonderful memories of your Mom and your faith will help you to try and get thru this loss--i never met her but from the wonderful stories you and Dave used to tell me she was a great lady who will never be forgotten and whom everyone who met her has a good story to tell--i can remember just from what you told me after your family's River cruise 2 years ago--and i still have the picture you sent me over the internet of her having a good time.i will keep you and your family in my prayers-

“ Charlotte was a mentor for me, after many years of trying to get me to applique quilt with not much success. In 2014 - 2015 Pelican Piecemakers decided to do an applique quilt for their 2016 Quilt Show with much prodding from Charlotte. This was the true beginning of my loving applique. The quilt was a huge success as a fund raiser for the guild and the quilt was called Charlotte's Garden. I know Charlotte would be very happy to know that today appliquing is one of the most favorite things that I enjoy about quilting. I met Charlotte at Smithtown Stitches and adored her kind and gentle ways. She was always willing to help not only me but everyone in the guild. When I moved to Florida I joined the Pelican Piecemakers because of Charlotte. We had many a good time together and I loved her dearly. Good bye my friend. I love you.
