“ Like Christine, I was also a classmate of Irene's at Masterman. I will remember her fondly as a friendly, helpful and entertaining girl. I recall she had a birthday party and invited the class, and I was the only boy who showed up! At least I got to (try to) dance with all the girls. Our paths crossed later when we both attended Penn; while we never had a class together, we would see each other on the street and exchange greetings. May her husband and family take consolation in a life well-lived. - Joe O'Bryan

“ I was saddened when I opened to newspaper this morning to see that Irene had passed. I had not seen or spoken to her since 1961 when we graduated from J. R. Masterman Jr. High School after 9th grade. But I remember her fondly. Since there were only 15 students in that graduating class we were all very close at that time. We traveled to school from all over the city. I remember Irene being from South Philly. I was from the Mt. Airy section..seemingly worlds away. We learned a lot from each other. It was quite an experience.
My sympathy and condolences to Irene's husband, family and friends. May she rest in peace.
