“ I was fortunate enough to work with John for his nine years as Independent Trustee of the National Railroad Retirement Investment Trust. John was critical to the Trust's formation and success. His efforts there greatly contributed to the retirement security of hundreds of thousands of railroad retirees. More than that, John was an inspiration to all who worked with him. Words cannot do justice to his generosity of spirit, his enthusiasm and optimism, and his commitment that went well beyond what was expected. Most of all, he was a true friend, brimming with love of life and family. He was an inspiration to all who knew him, and he will be greatly missed. But his contributions will endure.
