“ Heartfelt condolences to the family, especially to Wendy, Kirk, Brett, Will and Brooks. Your mother/grandmother was a lovely, generous and kind lady; and a gracious hostess on several occasions to me individually as well as with other Hill School '75 classmates of Rip.

I'm thankful that I was able to sit and speak with Nancy in Nov. 2015 at Rip's induction into the Hill School Athletics Hall of Fame, and grateful that she was able to witness that honor.

In addition to the pleasant times as a guest at the Davy home, I recall (with a chuckle) a moment at a Hill School LAX game when an opposing player put a hard body check on Rip, and Nancy jumped up in the bleachers and shouted "Don't you hurt my baby!!!"

A wry smile appeared on her face immediately as she sat down again because, maternal instincts aside, I believe she recognized — as did the rest of us who knew Rip — that nobody on that field was likely able to hurt Rip or be stupid enough to try.

Fond memories indeed of Ralph, Jr., Ralph III (Rip), and Nancy Davy.

Warmest regards to the entire family.

“ Aunt Nancy's love, wisdom and humor will be treasured forever. Our family was blessed to be your family. Let us all take up her torch of kindness and common sense for those growing up behind us.

A life well-lived. Such is the purpose and meaning of her wonderful life.

All my compassion and love to her children, grandchildren and friends. You get it.
