“ Thanks to John, Ruthanne’s brother who reunited us, I was able to visit Ruthanne in her final months. We were best friends from fifth grade on until I married and moved away in 1975, when we lost touch. Of the many memories we shared together and talked about as recently as last month, one you should all know about is how Ruthanne loved music and singing. We formed an all-girl rock band and played guitars and drums in the late 60’s- when girls didn’t play electric guitars in bands! I was happy to see Ruthanne enjoy singing with me and my “phone” to the Doors and reminiscing about our antics as kids as well as young women of the 60’s, during my visits. We grew up together and she will be in my memory as long as I’m alive.

“ My name is Mary Isabella Kidd and I am Ruth's cousin from New Zealand. John, her brother found me a few years ago on Ancestry and we share the same Great Grand Father, Captain Kilgour, the whaler. We all became very close and it is with much sadness that I have learnt of Ruth's passing. She was always very kind and gentle and like myself, was an animal lover. My thoughts will be very much with you on Friday. RIP Ruth. All my love Mary
