“ Lucky for me, Bill Gray didn't give up easily! He was kind enough to include me in the plays at AJHS and to try to teach me to diagram sentences in 8th grade.

It was a frustrating time for teachers in the seventies. He was mostly gracious about our "snottiness" but one day he lost his temper after severe provocation from a particular student in my class. He was so pent up that he threw a piece of chalk across the room. There was a hush... and then he manfully apologized.

Grown-ups didn't apologize to kids in those days. I've never forgotten it. He knew it was wrong to lose his cool and he owned up to it. What a great guy!

I often think of him and know you will miss his humor and intelligence.

he hit me with an eraser after he told me 4 times to stop drumming wipeout on my desk .I wasn't being rude it just kept happening. I was amazed how quickly he returned to his happy pleasant self . I really loved Mr Gray I enjoyed being in the school plays that he and Mr. Trotter helped us put on .

“ I have fond memories of Mr. Gray in so many Narberth Community Theatre productions. I can say that the shows he co-authored and produced with Ken Trotter not only were part of my life but truly shaped it. I recall “Deadwood Dick,” at Baka Cynwyd, circa ‘79, in particular. I was “Calamity jane” and got to say “I got a feelin’ of forebodin’” about 20 times in the course of the show! And I still find myself sayin’ it, in exactly the same drawl he coached me to say it in. And what do ya know - I’m a theatre teacher now. My heart goes out to your family at this time. mr.Gray passed on his love of theatre to me, as he did to so many others, and I am so grateful!

“ Dear Mrs. Gray, Bill, Laurie, Kelly -

My heart goes out to you all. I never had Mr. Gray for any classes! But I was lucky to have been directed by him at NCT in Sound of Music and at Ardmore Junior High in Caribbean Capers. Wonderful childhood highlights for me!

In the last several years I was happy to see him a few times a year at NCT productions as I attended with my parents, and then this last year with my mom. Ah, those were some golden years.

My condolences to everyone. I pray that your memories will bless you.

With love,

“ Mr. Gray was my homeroom, English and History teacher at Narberth Public School in 1958 and 1959. Like so many others in my class I looked up to him as he was so involved in teaching and the community. Life lessons taught and taken to heart. Thank you for all you taught me Mr. Gray, and thank you for being part of my life. Bill Voight

“ I had Mr Gray for 8th grade English(1961-1962) at AJHS. He was a great teacher and very nice guy. He contributed greatly to the school as did his dad who was a guidance counselor at Ardmore. My dad, Tom Fagan, who was assistant principal thought quite highly of him as well. I extend my condolences to his family.

“ Dear Family of Bill Gray,

Bill Gray was one of the best teachers I ever had and a wonderful human being. I was pleased to be able to exchange correspondence with him last month. As I told him in my letter, it's hard for me to think of any teacher who influenced the trajectory of my life more than he did. He was a great influence on lives of many. He will be missed.

“ Dear Mrs Gray, my friend Bill, and dear Laurie and Kelly,

So sorry for the loss of your husband and father.

I have many, many fond memories of Mr Gray from as far back as I can remember on Chestnut Ave.

Perhaps the most indelible one is being involved in the theatre under his direction and his role in creating one of the great joys in my life that has endured to this day. I remember expressing that to him at one of your Orange bowl parties, I think that's what they were, and how humble he was about it. He was an exceedingly talented playwright and director and I learned so much from him.

He truly was a wonderful man and I am only one of the many who had the privilege of being touched by his humanity.
