

Barbara E. Klapper

November 26, 1944 - August 7, 2024

Barbara E. Klapper, 79, of Broomall, Pennsylvania passed away peacefully on August 7, 2024 surrounded by family after bravely battling stage 4 metastatic lung cancer. Barbara was born on November 26, 1944 in Bryn Mawr Pennsylvania to the late Barry and Eleanor Johnston Barker.

She is preceded in death by her son, Christopher B. Klapper. Barbara is survived by her son, Matthew C. Klapper (Belinda), grandchildren Calvin M. Klapper (Gabriele), Connor S. Klapper (Joanna) and Margaret E. Klapper.

Barbara lived in her home since 1966. She was a cornerstone member of the Harmil Road gang. She was a fiercely independent person and lived confidently with her sets of dachshunds for many years. A master gardener, her yard was a jewel of the neighborhood. Her love of beautiful flowers transferred to her tremendous skill in craftwork. She was an expert in knitting, beadwork, needlepoint, wood carving, photography and drawing. She loved the challenge of word games and created friendships online from around the world. She was loved for her outspoken, fearless nature, and rapier wit. You could count on her spicy contribution to any conversation. She will be missed by many, but mostly by her family.

“ My sympathy to Barbara's Family. Not sure when I actually met Barbara but I have to say one of the things I liked and admired about Barbara was how she was not afraid to speak her mind. Loved it when she would stop over Skip's with Woofie and Buster when we were having coffee. I loved our political talks and how she would get on me because I did not know the news people on Fox. Only Barbara could call Ruby Anne a slut and get away with it. I will miss her but I have so many great memories.
