

Barbara Quick Lorndale

October 5, 1928 - April 14, 2007

Barbara Q. Lorndale

Barbara Quick Lorndale, a longtime resident of Wynnewood and Gladwyne, died April 14, 2007. She was 78. Mrs. Lorndale was the wife of the late Robert G. Lorndale, who passed away in 1998.

Mrs. Lorndale was born in Princeton, N.J., and graduated from Miss Fine's School in Princeton and Vassar College, Class of 1950. She studied architecture at Cornell University and Columbia University.

After working in architecture in New York City and Richmond, Va., Mrs. Lorndale moved to the Philadelphia area, where she was involved in numerous volunteer activities. Mrs. Lorndale was a guide at the University of Pennsylvania Museum and a teacher in various youth education programs. She was a member of The Vassar Club of Philadelphia, serving as President in 1972-73 and in other officer positions throughout the years. For 30 years, she and a core group of members produced the Philadelphia Vassar Club's Designer Show House, a key fundraiser for scholarships to Vassar.

Mrs. Lorndale is survived by a son, Robert G. Lorndale, Jr., of Great Falls, Va., a daughter, Deirdre Griffin of Wellesley, Mass., six grandchildren, Timothy and Julianne Lorndale, and Courtney, Caroline, Charles and William Griffin, and a brother, Daniel Quick of Saxonburg, Pa.

A memorial service will be held on April 20, 2007, at 11 a.m. at All Saint's Church in Wynnewood, Pa.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Arthritis Foundation, The Bourse Building, 111 S. Independence Mall East, Suite 500, Philadelphia, Pa. 19106 or the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 30468, Philadelphia, Pa. 19103.
