SCHWOEBEL

Belle Courtney Schwoebel, of Haverford, PA, died on Wed. Jan. 21, 2009 at age 79. She was the daughter of the late Hannabelle Arnold and Francis Engard Courtney; a graduate of Germantown High School and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Belle was a Teacher at Oakmont & Lynnewood Elementary Schools and also a Dental Receptionist for Dr. Charles Geiges and Dr. Michael Toohey.

Belle loved both wild and domestic animals, and nature in general, shopping, taking cruises, jigsaw puzzles, reading and visiting with her grandchildren.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 58 and a half years, William O. Schwoebel; devoted children, William O. Schwoebel Jr.(Catherine), Sandra L. Schwoebel and Beverly S. Dannaker(John); along with her loving grandchildren, Stephen, Victoria, Carolyn, Christopher, Sean and Amanda; brother, Francis E. Courtney; and sister, Loralou Bates.

Her Memorial Service was held on Sun. Jan. 25, 2pm in the Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, 30 E. Athens Ave. Ardmore, PA.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Twain (Animal Rescue & Adoption), P.O. Box 1861, Media, PA 19063

“ I got to meet and visit with Belle last July of 2008. I found her gracious and possessing a wry sense of humor. I wish her family and friends the very best in their adjustment to life with only their memories of her.##imported-begin##Richard D. King##imported-end##

“ This message from Uncle Pete:

Love to you all in this time if saddness. Your Mom was a great lady, and a wonderful sister. I'm very glad that I was able to see her again so recently.

You are all in our prayers, God Bless, Uncle Pete##imported-begin##Francis E. Courtney##imported-end##

“ Dear Schwoebel Family,

We are so sorry to hear about your loss. Belle will be greatly missed. I know Mary always relished her phone conversations with Belle and would laugh about some of their stories. We have you in our thoughts and prayers!
