

Caroline Mary Casey

June 12, 1919 - December 10, 2010

Caroline Mary Casey, 92, died on Friday Dec. 10th, 2010 at Broomall Presbyterian Village of natural causes.

Daughter of the late Caroline T. and Jeremiah C. of Narberth, sister of the late David, Grace, Jeremiah (Martha), Thomas (Irene), Joseph, and Ann.

Caroline was a lifelong resident of the Borough, where her father had been a long-serving station-master for the Pennsylvania Railroad. A graduate of Narberth Public School and honors grad of Lower Merion High School (1936), Caroline was an avid learner. She spent her business career with the Armstrong Cork family of companies, retiring from ACS Corporation (formerly Armstrong Contracting and Supply Corp.) in the 1980s.

Caroline was very active for many years in several business and professional women's organizations.

Recreationally, she was an avid reader---especially in English history---and an adventurous traveler whose journeys included much of Europe and North America. She was also an aggressive and talented bridge player who maintained contact with her same bridge group for much of her life.

Caroline is survived by her nephews Jeremiah Michael Jr. (the late Ruth),
David (Alice),
Thomas (Frauke) and grandnephew Tommy.

A Prayer Service will be held on Thurs. Dec. 16th, 11am in the Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, 30 East Athens Avenue, Ardmore, PA., where your may call after 10am. Interment will follow in Calvary Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to Narberth Fire
Co., P.O. Box 45, Narberth, PA 19072
