

Cathrine B. Sanders

February 27, 1928 - April 13, 2021

Cathrine B. Sanders of Villanova, Pennsylvania, died at Bryn Mawr Hospital on Tuesday, April 13, 2021. Mrs. Sanders moved with her husband to Villanova from Oak Brook, Illinois, following his retirement in 1986.

The daughter of William and Lottie Bilderback, Mrs. Sanders spent her childhood in her birthplace, Webb City, Missouri, and moved with her family to Wilmington, Delaware when she was 13. She and her husband, William Sanders, met and were sweethearts in the 10th grade at PS Dupont High School in Wilmington. Mrs. Sanders graduated from The University of Delaware in 1950.

Mrs. Sanders lived and raised her children in eight different locations in the Mid-Atlantic, New England, the South, and the Midwest during her husband's many transfers in his career at Sears Roebuck & Co. During those years, in addition to being a homemaker, she was active in many groups such as garden clubs, newcomer's clubs, PTAs, Brownies, and Little League baseball. Mrs. Sanders is survived by her husband, a son David, and four grandchildren. Her daughter Holly died in 2007.

Funeral services will be private. Burial will be in the Churchyard of Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge.
