“ I knew Mr. Bellano through WBYA baseball where his son Greg played baseball with my son Brandon. Mr. Bellano worked hard with Greg to make him a fabulous player and touched me with his dedication and love for his son. That is something I will never forget. I hope that both his sons always remember how much he loved them and how they were the absolute best part of his life. He was always with them in life and will always be with them. God bless him and his boys.##imported-begin##Patty Baqlbirnie##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Mr. Charles Bellano, Jr.:

I would like to express my condolences to you for the loss of your father, brother and nephew, Mr. Charles Bellano. I would also like to share a scripture from the Bible that I hope you will find comforting during this time in your life.

In John 5:28, Jesus stated that 'the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (or graves) will hear his voice and come out'. This promise made by Jesus helps us to understand that there is hope for those who have died, including Mr. Bellano. They will be resurrected, or brought back to life, to live again on an earth restored back to peaceful conditions by Jesus Christ and his father, Jehovah God. This is a promise that we should all look forward to being fulfilled.

I hope this has provided you with comfort and hope. Once again, I express my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Francine Smith##imported-end##

“ Chuck was a very generous and kind man. I remember how every New Years Eve during college how Chuck, Mary Jo, and their mother would open their house up to Chuck's hungry frat brothers. They would make homemade stromboli and pizza that was out of this world. That was like Chuck to go to all lengths to make others happy. But most of all I just remember Chuck always being there with his friends during both good times and tough times. My prayers are with Mary Jo and his boys on their loss. May Chuck now rest with God in heaven.##imported-begin##Bill Capra##imported-end##
