“ Dear Gary, Elizabeth and extended family and friends, my sincere condolences in loosing your beloved Christine, this changes your life and when you think of it, meeting that same person to begin with also had already changed your life forever and filled it with love.

I never had the chance of meeting Christine in person, we spoke maybe once or twice on the phone, her being in the States and i in Belgium.

With her new role as manager of the SME group, came the responsibility for the approval of the reports i ran in respect of compliance. This is such dry matter (:) and just a tiny part of her job but she nevertheless was very interested and willing to do all needed to understand also this task. i speak in experience that this is not always the case. So i'm grateful for that.

*All the best in finding your path, still filled with love
Leen*
