

Christine Massaro

January 19, 1943 - December 27, 2025

Christine Massaro, age 82, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her loving family, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and devotion to family.

Christine was born in Philadelphia to her loving parents, John and Dorothy Capitolo. She was an amazing and devoted wife to Edward L. Massaro, Sr., with whom she shared a lifetime of love until his passing three years ago. Together, they built a family grounded in trust, faith, and togetherness.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and sister. Christine is survived by her son, Edward Massaro Jr., and her daughter-in-law, Colleen Massaro. She was the proud and loving grandmother of Ty Nicholas Massaro and Payton Shea Massaro, who were truly the loves of her life and brought her endless joy. She is also survived by her only sister, Joan Holloran.

Christine had a deep love for animals and a heart full of kindness. She cherished every moment spent surrounded by her family, especially time with her grandchildren. Her warmth, gentle spirit, and unconditional love will be remembered always.

The family will receive guests after 9:30 AM, followed by her Funeral Mass at 10:00 AM, at Our Mother of Good Counsel Church in Bryn Mawr, PA, on Friday, January 9.

Christine now rests in the loving arms of the Lord, reunited with her beloved husband and those who have gone before her. Her faith brings comfort to those she leaves behind, knowing she is at peace and watching over her family until they meet again.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her name to ASPCA

“ I was lucky enough to have her except me as a member of her extended family. I truly loved AC as my AUNT & I was so very lucky to have the time I did spend with her. That time was well spent with Aunt Chris!!!! We drank Absolute/Tonic & I helped her hold a snake in Cancun!! The times I spent with MY aunt I will never forget. I had so much fun with Aunt Chris from the times down the shore in Wildwood to hearing the first time “Eddie Lang”
She & Uncle Ed are in my ❤️ forever!!!!
Rest in peace I love you to the moon & back. You will be missed ❤️
❤️❤️❤️❤️
