“ My heart goes out to you at this time of great sorrow. I am so very sorry for your loss. It is my prayer that God give you peace in your quiet moments and comfort to replace your grief. Courtney was dearly loved and will be greatly missed. Though it's hard to cope with her passing and the pain seems unbearable, please remember you are not alone, for Psalms 46:1 promises, "God is our refuge and strength. A help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words, "while you throw all our anxiety on Him, Because He Cares For You." (1 Peter 5:7) May his loving promise that one day, you will see your dear Courtney again, give you hope and bring you peace, for Isaiah 26:19 assures us, "Your Dead Will Live...Awake and cry out joyfully, You Residents In The Dust!..." With deepest sympathy.

“ I only met Courtney two or three times but she made a huge impact on how I approach people, she taught me never to approach in a way that makes people feel unfriendly even if I wanted to because it's not worth thinking about afterwards, and Courtney was a best friend to my sister when we couldn't be there for her. Courtney was a sweetheart and I'm sad the world had to lose a wonderful person.

“ Hi Court,

I just want you to know how much I loved you. Even when there seemed like miles of distance between us there were still things that reminded me of you everyday. If I passed Ponds Edge I would always recall a different memory. Sometimes it was playing around the pond and getting chased by angry geese, other times it was trick or treating in the best neighbourhood with the most candy. I reviewed my first kiss in your basement bathroom from Jordan Spillane when playing spin the bottle. I remember you snorting when you laughed, and I remember riding chance. I remember snoopy and tigger and the way you loved them both so very much. I remember watching Mickey Blue Eyes on your leather couch in the basement. Some of my memories are of getting in trouble and going to parties, but they all contribute to the person you helped me become today. I know we lost touch for a while, each of us on our own life paths. We would come together now and again and it seemed like no time had passed. Your smile could brighten a room. Your laugh was contagious.

Tonight I remembered what it was like when we all got together a mixture of chaos and amazing fun and friendships. I looked at you and thought that your beautiful soul was at peace somewhere else. I hugged your mom and Vince as tightly as I could. I saw Pat from afar and wanted him to know I was there. He seems like a perfect man. I'm so happy he was able to fulfil your life with such joy. I hope you are somewhere happy and you are laughing and doing all the things you love. And I hope you are watching over each and every person that loves you so much. You touched more lives than you know. May you rest in peace. And may your family and Your Pat find comfort in knowing that your love is going to shower them everyday and you are with them watching over them and protecting them with your amazing and beautiful spirit. Love you always.

“ I'm so sorry that this happened. I will miss her so much. I want to tell you a story. She was my first na friend. At the Wednesday night Bryn Mawr meeting about 5 years ago she shared that she had to go to temple to pick up her prescription eyeglasses. And that she didn't want to go alone because it was in a bad neighborhood. I was very new to meetings and didn't understand what recovery was all about but I walked up to her after the meeting and said that I would go with her. we became fast friends and shared many memories together. She showed me what recovery was about, love, identification and getting through things together. I don't know if I would still be here without her. She helped me feel apart of when I felt very isolated and alone. I am grateful to have known her. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. Love always, amanda

“ I'm so very sorry for loosing your daughter. She grew up with my son Captain Taylor Picone on E team at Unionville Middle School. They were good friends She was in a video I created when Taylor graduated from Valley Forge Military Academy and College. They stayed in touch for years. Taylor called me tonight with news, brought many tears to my eyes! We are so very sorry and we will say a prayer for Courtney and your family. I remember the blonder than blond hair and her laugh. E Team was very special and all of them were so close. We had a pool party here and I took numerous photos of all of them on their towels. She even came to visit after that. I think those photos were taken in 4th grade (Mrs. Greenwood), maybe she wasn't on E Team? Sharing in your loss and sorrow! God Bless all of you, especially your mother! Taylor wishes he could be there for the service, but he is away in Va. for Army training. Much love and hugs being sent your way. 😭😭😭

“ I am so saddened to learn of your passing. Although we were not as close in the past few years as we were when we were younger, I will always have the happy memories of laughing and playing with you during Mrs. Bowman's 5th grade class. I think she must have "shushed" us at least 10 times a day. My favorite memory of you was a time later in high school that I picked you up and we went to get Chinese food and King's Island. We hadn't seen each other in a few years and The Format's "First Single" came on the stereo and we both exclaimed how much we loved the track before singing along together. You were there for me when I transferred to Temple and didn't know anybody, you introduced me to friends and made me feel welcome. You always brought laughter and joy to the world around you even through life's toughest challenges. I am so sorry that I can not be there for your services in person as I am away with the Army but I will be there in spirit and I will miss you always. My love, thoughts, and condolences to your family and of course to Pat. I always loved the way you supported and shared his success with us. Although he and I never met I hope he knows we are all here for him now and in the future. Good bye my friend, save a spot for me on the other side. I'll make a donation to the charity for you. With love, Taylor Picone
