Diane Helene McCue, born on April 17, 1941 and died on December 21, 2023

Diane Helene McCue, 82, of Rosemont, PA, passed away peacefully at home with her family at her side on Thursday, December 21, 2023. Born in Montreal, Canada as Diane Helene Mongeau, she was the daughter of Berthold Mongeau and Georgette Lambert Mongeau, and sister to Marie Louise Mongeau Charron.

She graduated from Le Grand Verger in Neuchatel, Switzerland before meeting her husband Charles Joseph McCue, Jr. in Nice, France. Diane married young, at 18, and moved to Rosemont, Pennsylvania with her husband Charles. Diane worked as a fashion model for many years, first on the Mike Douglas show in Philadelphia and for many local charity events. She continued to model at local charity events into her 70s. A lifelong needlepointer, Diane also worked at two needlepoint shops for many years: Eddie and Gingers, in Wayne, PA, and Fireside Stitchery in Fraser, PA. She would say that she worked at the needlepoint store to support her needlepoint “habit.”

Diane was a 64 year member of Aronimink Country Club where she enjoyed playing golf, tennis and in later years, Pickle ball. She loved her Friday night dinners with “the Gang” at Aronimink. An avid traveler, Diane loved to visit

Paris with her mother and friends, and to travel to see her sister in Montreal and Barbados. She had a great fondness for her sister's home in Mont Tremblant, in the Laurentian Mountains in Quebec, Canada. Diane also loved following her grandchildren to their baseball, softball, hockey, and Lacrosse games. She maintained a unique relationship with each of her grandchildren based upon their interests. Diane remained a loyal Montreal Canadiens fan for life, sharing her love of her home town team with her grandson, Conor.

Surviving Diane are her sister Marie Louise, and Diane's three children, Diane Helen McCue Cozzola of St. Petersburg, FL, Charles Joseph McCue III of Radnor, PA, and Sean Kevin McCue of Castle Pines, CO. Diane had six grandchildren whom she cherished. Her grandchildren from her son Charles are Slater Ryan McCue, Aurora Lindsey McCue, and Kiley Paige McCue. Her grandchildren from her son Sean are Conor Lee McCue, Torin Nicolas McCue and Bailey Lauren McCue. Diane had one great grandchild who she adored, Hailey Ryan McCue, daughter of Slater Ryan and his wife Kathryn Joan McCue.
