“ As a long time member of Church and Synagogue Library Association, I can testify that Dot was the ultimate symbol of what CSLA is all about. We all know that there would never have been the longevity of this organization (50 years coming up) except for Dot Rodda. Her cheerful demeanor, her great smile, and her loving spirit were infused into all the people, the chapters, the meetings, the actions, the very fiber of this group of library workers. We can all be grateful for having been a part of the gracious life she shared with us. A truly blessed soul. Love and goodbye, Dot.
