PS

“ Dear Paul and Jane,
I have so many good memories of the time I spent with your mother, especially when it came time to do physical therapy. She always complained but stood right there at the sink and did them commenting the whole time.
She also loved her Friday and Saturday nights out with you. If you were 5 minutes late she would think you weren't coming and start to put on a sour face then the phone would ring that you were on your way and the sparkle came to her eyes. She also enjoyed her time with Andrew. She certainly loved her Boston Market!

Sorry to not be able to be with you on Friday, put my thoughts and prayers will be with you.

Love,
Pat Savastio
