“ Sorry Murray Family for your loss. We'll miss Jim's fun personality and great story telling. We looked forward to his holiday cards each year, Jim was a real trendsetter, he was a first in sending personalized photo Christmas cards, they always made us laugh. Here's one I found sent to Paula with a birthday wish. Mr. Murray will be very much missed. ”

Chris Murray - February 25, 2018 at 09:09 PM

“ Thank you for being the grandfather I never had. I will miss you more then you will ever know. You have taught me so much about life, love, family and business over the last 15 years. I will absolutely treasure all of our talks and little inside jokes. I will miss our Sunday dinners, watching football with the TV on mute, and listening to all your amazing stories about Lily and the wonderful life you had in Paris. But what I will miss the most is your giant bear hugs and infectious smile. Thank you for building the family that I am so lucky to be a part of.

“ I remember his flying Ronald and me from Barcelona down to Alicante in his Piper aircraft. How did he get the government to pay for that? Ronald explained the Piper was a real airplane (low-wing) and not like a high-wing Cessna. And how about racing around Barcelona in the green fastback Mustang (a '64?)

“ Mom and Dad, you could not have provided us with a better, luckier, or happier life. It seems almost unbelievable to think of where we lived, where we traveled, and the wonderful people we met along the way. And everyone you met loved you, as we do. You touched everyone with your positive outlook, your humor, and your genuine love for others. Your generation was a great one we may not see again. You have left us with more amazing memories than we can hope to remember. We will share many. Thank you for bringing me into this life with a great big brother. Thank you for the great family we have today. We love you Mom and Dad.
