

Edward C. Ross

August 7, 1932 - August 25, 2011

Edward C. Ross, son of the late William Floyd Ross and Marie Appoline Reisenberger, went home to be with the Lord, on Thursday, August 25.

Born on August 7, 1932, in Rochester, N.Y., Ed migrated south to the Philadelphia area, where he met and married Patricia Eyrich on August 28, 1971, and lived for the last 40 years.

He was an active member of the Lions Club of Oxford and Overbrook, the Southern Chester County YMCA, and the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church.

Ed graduated from Madison High School and attended Rochester Institute of Technology. As a young man, he served in the U.S. Army as a radio operator during the Korean War.

Professionally, he went on to work as a salesman, owning and operating his own office-supply store. Ed's interests and hobbies included gathering with family and friends, playing games, traveling, and baking.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Ross, sons Jamal Ross and Bernard Guinyard, sister-in-law Beatrice Ross, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

A memorial service celebrating Ed's life will be held on Thursday, September 1, at 2:00 p.m. at Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home. The service will be conducted by Rev. Charles Grant. Friends and family are welcome.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that a contribution be made to The Fresh Air Fund in Edward Ross's name.

Ed will be remembered for his love of family reunions, his kindness, the twinkle in his eye, and for be a loving and helpful husband and father.
