

Eleanor Abbott Pierson

March 6, 1938 - June 12, 2016

Eleanor (Lee) Abbott Pierson, a long-time resident of the Main Line, died Sunday, the 12th of June at Beaumont in Bryn Mawr.

Born in 1938 in Boston M.A., Lee received a Bachelor of Science from Skidmore College in 1960. Lee married Daniel B. Pierson, V. that same year. Lee owned travel agencies and worked as a travel agent from the late 1970s until her retirement in the 2000s.

Lee made deep, meaningful and lasting connections with the friends made while pursuing her passions of fishing, gardening, painting and cooking. She will be remembered for her strength, perseverance, devotion, and caring.

Lee sat on the Woman's Board of the Philadelphia Academy of the Fine Arts. She thoroughly enjoyed her time painting and volunteering at the Wayne Art Center. Lee was a long-time member of the Merion Cricket Club. Lee terrorized trout streams throughout the U.S. and abroad, always catching the biggest fish. Her flower and vegetable gardens always bloomed and prospered.

Lee is survived by two children, Jane W. Pierson and Daniel B. Pierson and her brother, Robert G. Abbott and her sister Gail Abbott.

Her Memorial Service will be held on Thurs. June 16th. at 4 PM in the Music Room at Beaumont, 601 N. Ithan Ave., Bryn Mawr PA.

Donations may be made in lieu of flowers to the Wayne Art Center, 413 Maplewood Ave, Wayne, PA 19087 or the American Cancer Society.
