Eleanore Zeiss Bradway

Eleanore Zeiss Bradway, 85, a resident of Gladwyne for 45 years, passed away at Suburban Woods Nursing Home in Norristown, Thursday evening, January 11th.

Born August 23, 1921 in Chicago, Illinois, she was the daughter of the late Carl and Mary Josephine Zeiss. Ellie attended North Shore Country Day in Winnetka, IL and Vassar College. She was a graduate of University of California, Berkeley in 1943 with a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology.

Preceding her in death were her brother Henry Zeiss and sister Josephine Brown and her husband, Bruce Bradway.

After college, Ellie lived in Mexico for four years after starting her own travel business there. Ellie owned the Baskin-Robbins ice cream store in Ardmore with her husband and managed it for 23 years.

Ellie loved music and served in the choir of St. Christopher's Church in Gladwyne for many years. She was active in many organizations including Questers, Meals on Wheels, Newcomers, Colonial Dames, and Hannah Penn.

She loved the outdoors and spent countless summers sailing, fishing, and playing tennis at her home away from home, Wipigaki, in the Northwoods of Wisconsin as well as spending several summers traveling cross country with her children.

Ellie is survived by her children Jonathan Bradway, Jeannie Spillane, Robert Bradway, and Eric Bradway, grandchildren Zeke Spillane, Jessica Harlan, Favor Spillane, Jordan Spillane, Dacyl Spillane and Adam Bradway, and her great grandchild Joshua Harlan.

A viewing will be held at Chadwick McKinney Funeral Home from 7-9 pm, Friday evening, January 19th. Ellie's life will be celebrated at an 11:00 am service, Saturday, January 20, 2007 at St. Christopher's Church, 226 Righter's Mill Road in Gladwyne. Interment will be at the Washington Memorial Chapel in Valley Forge Park. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Covenant House, P.O. Box JAF 2973, New York, New York 10116-2973.
