“ My condolences to the entire Dormond family. I have very fond memories of the three boys growing up in Coopertown and sharing many long walks and coffee klatches with Elise. May God comfort you in your time of sorrow.

“ Jim and Family, We were so sorry to learn of Elise's passing. She was a long time Coopertowner and neighbor on Stockton Road. She was also a classmate of my sister, Pat, at Haverford High. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Warmest regards, Jack and Barb Thomas

“ Lee and I were so sorry to hear about Elise's passing. She was a wonderful neighbor and friend to us. I have so many great memories of her- how welcoming she was when we first moved in, how incredibly gifted she was as a craftsperson (I will always be in awe of her gingerbread house in the shape of a Russian church as well as the fact that she could spin) and how, when Lee had to make an emergency trip to the ER in the middle of the night, she came right over to stay with our kids. She was there for you if you needed her. Stockton Road benefitted from her presence. She certainly loved her family! Our love and sympathy to you all, Gay and Lee Strickler
