

Frances L. O'Neill

December 22, 1947 - July 30, 2021

Frances L. O'Neill (DeMasi) "Frani" of St. Davids, PA, died peacefully surrounded by her family on July 30th, 2021 at the age of 73 at Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Frani was the daughter of the late Vincent and Lucy DeMasi. She was a graduate of Maria Goretti High School and Philadelphia College of Textiles and Science and The Art Institute of Philadelphia.

Frani spent her life dedicated to her family. She was also a skilled interior designer and quilt maker. She loved being involved in the local community, connecting with others through: Wayne Woods Garden Club, Local Neighborhood Book Club, and Sewing & Quilting Classes through Steve's Sewing and Vacuum Center.

Frani is survived by her beloved husband of 51 years Thomas O'Neill, Brother Steve DeMasi and his wife Regina DeMasi, Sister-in-law Sally DiDonato and her husband Frank DiDonato, Best Friend Joanne DeProphetis, Daughters, Shannan O'Neill and her husband, Aaron Cherry, and Gabrielle O'Neill, and her fiance, Daniel Donahue; grandson, Lucas Cherry, granddaughter, Natalie Cherry; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews as well as countless friends she considered to be family.

Her memorial service will be held outside at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to either Frani's local garden group, Wayne Woods Garden Club or the Wounded Warriors Project, a charity and veterans' organization which Frani was an avid contributor.
