

Frances Dodds Ashleigh

March 4, 1932 - November 16, 2007

Frances Dodds Ashleigh, 75, went home to be with her Lord on November 16, 2007 as a result of Alzheimer's Disease. Born in Philadelphia, March 4, 1932, Frances and her late husband Robert F. Ashleigh resided in Havertown for nearly 50 years. She is survived by Douglas Ashleigh, R. David Ashleigh, Dwight Ashleigh, Deborah Brenneman and Dawn Canan, as well as fourteen grandchildren. A graduate of Geneva College and a life-long Christian, Francie was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was vivacious and friendly, and the consummate hostess, having organized countless church dinners, parties, and along with her husband, Bob, hosted and entertained hundreds of people in their home over the years. The past several years of her long-term battle with Alzheimer's had dimmed most of her sparkle, but none of the love and warmth that accompanied her throughout her life. A funeral will take place on Monday, November 26th at 10:00 A.M. at the Broomall Reformed Presbyterian Church, 27 Lawrence Road, Broomall, PA. After the service there will be a reception at the church followed by a burial service at Valley Forge Memorial Gardens, King of Prussia, PA. The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, contributions in Frances Ashleigh's name be made to the Fisher Center for Alzheimer's Research, One Intrepid Square, W. 46th Street & 12nd Avenue, New York, NY 10036 or visit www.alzinfo.org. Funeral arrangements were made by Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home of Ardmore..

“ Hi Debbie and Dawn, I played basketball w/ you at DCCS. I just happen to see about the passing of your mom in the paper. I just felt compelled to send this because my mom too has Alzs. disease. I know the struggle you must have had. I pray that the Lord will just give you comfort, knowing that she is in His care now and that she has her spark back and then some. My mom has lost her spark too. I would love to hear from you both.
