“ George was a great friend over the past 25 years and we shared so many great memories. His creative energy in the movies and shows we wrote together will always be remembered and his comedic gift will always keep me laughing. We were in eachothers weddings, we worked together, went to concerts but mostly I always remember his love for Laura and then his love for Cariline. He always took the time to listen and share all his time. Prayers to you and your family.

I remember George as being the guy in school who was a friend to everyone. It didn't matter if you were in the popular crowd, what you looked like or how well you were liked. He was always kind, caring, and loved music. So blessed you were a part of our class of 85. Rest in peace.
