“ Dear Mrs. Gates Lloyd.

It was my distinct and often cherished memory of your late husband, H. Gates Lloyd, to have been associated with him during our time together at Pennsylvania Hospital My sympathies go out to you and his family.

As a young Assistant Administrator I it was my good fortune to meet your husband, a member and Manager of the Board of Trustees.

We were all strictly instructed, regardless if we knew a Manager personally, to address all Managers as Mister. H. Gates Lloyd was a challenge and no matter how many times I did have to address your husband, I got it wrong. One day he pulled me aside and said that it would be easier for the both of us to just call him Gates. Of course I didn't but I never to this day, will I forget his unassuming and open manner. He was and I will always remember him, as a proud but humble soul. Jack McMeekin
