

James A. Adams Jr.

September 1, 1933 - December 18, 2024

James A. Adams Jr., 91, of Narberth, PA, passed away peacefully on December 18, 2024, in Exton, Pennsylvania.

Born September 1st, 1933, in Philadelphia, PA, Jim was the son of the late James A. Adams Sr. and Sara K. Adams (nee Deck).

Jim was a graduate of Lower Merion High School and served honorably in the United States Army. Jim would go on to serve as a Lower Merion police officer and later, spend the majority of his career in the automotive repair business. Known for his humor, kindness, strong work ethic and dedication, he forged many friendships throughout his career.

Jim enjoyed a life filled with simple pleasures and deep relationships with friends and loved ones. He loved traveling and especially enjoyed the Jersey Shore. An avid gardener, Jim toiled endlessly, planting, pruning and cultivating his garden. Jim was a diehard Philadelphia Eagles, Villanova and Penn State football fan.

Jim will be remembered as a devoted family man, whose love and quiet strength shaped the lives of those closest to him. He was the beloved husband of Ann Adams; the loving father of Scott (Ginger), Kristine Hilty, James (Maria); and the adoring grandfather of Michael (deceased), Reannon, Anthony, Christian, Samantha, Madelyn, Devon; and great grandfather to Emma and Ava.

Jim was also a dear brother to Robert, Nancy Matus, Sue McLean, Fred (deceased) and John.

His family will receive guests on Saturday February 8th. from 10 am to 12 pm in the Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, 30 E. Athens Ave., Ardmore, PA 19003

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Tunnel to Towers Foundation, 2361 Hylan Boulevard, Staten Island, NY 10306, or a charity of your choice.
