“ We were all saddened to hear of Jim's passing, and send our condolences to all the family.

Jim and Mildred visited my mother, Esme in England several times and made us welcome when we visited the USA in return.

I know he was a steadfast man who served his country, and brought up a lovely family with Mildred. He must have found it hard to carry on after her death.

I am glad that he survived to meet his first great granddaughter baby Nora.

Here is a picture of happier times taken of us altogether at the wedding of Andrew and Ellie in 2011.

Fond memories, Jackie (Miller) & John Crampton
