“ Scott and I were in first grade together and went all through high school together. We spent many a cold morning together waiting for the school bus at the top of Belmont Avenue! He had a lovely soul and was a wonderful artist. My condolences to you, Sandy.

“ Sandra, so sorry to hear about your brother Scott. He was such a kind, and gentle man. I remember working with him at Strawbridge and Clothier. May God bless you during this sad time. Fondly, Mary Knauss- Lentz

“ I worked with Scott for many years at St. Edmonds Home. He will be truly missed by his St. Edmonds Family. He kept to himself and you could always find Scott sketching a beautiful picture of something. I would tell him what a creative mind he had and such a great talent he had in drawing. He would barely acknowledge, that I just gave him a nice compliment. He was not at all pompous with his great ability to draw. He would make us laugh with his announcement faithfully every Saturday evening that Mass will begin at 4PM and that Father (the priest) was on his way. He was one of the most patient people I have ever met. He was always a sincere, kind, loving friend to me and will surely be missed!

*Sincerely,

“ I am so sad to hear of Scott's passing. I have known Scott since kindergarten. We went to Chestnutwold Elementary, HHS, and even attended the same college- Kutztown University. Over the years we worked at the old Strawbridge and Clothier together.

This past Sunday we decided to visit The Michener Museum of Art in Doylestown. The exhibit included paintings once owned by the Philadelphia School District. We pondered what art may have graced our walls in Haverford Township when we were kids that went unnoticed as we rushed around.

Scott reminded me that he won $50 in an art contest at Haverford. He was very proud of that but was still curious about where the painting had ended up. He was a kind and gentle soul. My sympathy to Sandra, his dear friend Bill, and his cherished Lucy the Boston Terrier.
