

James Musumeci

August 16, 1950 - September 9, 2024

James Robert Musumeci, 74, a loving husband, father and grandfather passed away at his home on September 9th, 2024. Born in Manhattan on August 16, 1950, Jim was the son of James Joseph Musumeci and Daisy (Theresa) Alvarado Franco. He graduated from Xavier High School in New York City and attended Rutgers University. For the past 17 years, he lived in Wayne, PA.

Jim spent much of his career as an electrical sales engineer. However, his true passion was cooking and baking. After settling in Pennsylvania, Jim worked as an instructor for a number of years at Main Line School Night in Radnor. He created recipes and taught classes on a wide range of topics from risotto to scones! Jim loved music, theater and singing, cooking with his grandson Maks, watching cricket, and traveling to London. His sense of humor will be greatly missed.

Jim is survived by his wife of 29 years Margaret Musumeci, his daughters Wendy and Jennifer Musumeci, his step children Meredith and Matthew Yannuzzi, his sister Mary Gentilella, her husband Tom, his three grandchildren Maksymilian Sekula, Isabella and Lorenzo Yannuzzi, son-in-law Martin Sekula and daughter-in-law Susan Yannuzzi and his beloved dog, ikey.
