

James Albert Schnaars

April 8, 1922 - September 26, 2012

James Albert Schnaars of Haverford, Pennsylvania, passed away September 26, 2012 at Dunwoody Village in Newtown Square, Pennsylvania.

Cherished son, loyal brother, loving husband, beloved father, and treasured grandfather, he was born on April 8, 1922, the elder son of Albert and Florence Schnaars of Congers, New York. He was married to Sylvia Dunmore Schnaars on January 23, 1945, and with her they had four children: Robert Dunmore Schnaars (Sharon), James Albert Schnaars, Jr.(Sydney), Mary Bayliss Goodier Schnaars Otto (Thomas), and Richard Palmer Schnaars (Alisa). He is preceded in death by his parents and his younger brother, Robert Schnaars of Mobile, Alabama.

Dad worshipped our mother, adored his children, and greatly loved his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was an avid tennis player, often nationally ranked, and he delighted in helping others. He was probably happiest when his entire family gathered for vacations in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina. Attended The Hotchkiss School and graduate of Haverford College. He was a member of the Merion Cricket Club and an active fund raiser for the

Easter Seals Foundation & Arthur Ashe Foundation

He taught us all how to love, how to laugh, and how to truly enjoy life.

He served his country through World War II and the Korean conflict, and worked his entire career for the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company.

A memorial service will be held at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, Bryn Mawr, PA on Sunday, October 14, 2012 at 3:00PM. Memorial contributions may be made in his name to The Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut, where he spent four of his happiest childhood years.
