

Johanne Jefferis-Kohl

February 20, 1937 - May 10, 2015

Johanne Jefferis-Kohl died peacefully with family by her side on Sunday May 10th 2015 at Kindred Hospice in Havertown, PA. She was born on February 20th, 1937 to the late late Jerv Jefferis and Ethel Lord Jefferis, in Chester, PA. Johanne was a beautiful and generous person. She had a brilliant sense of humor and a sharp and sassy tongue. She loved her family, her faith, and her friends with everything she had. A strong and stoic woman of great pride. A protective mother and fierce advocate for anyone she loved. We always considered her “Large and In Charge” and everyone that knew her was aware of that. She loved the beach and spent every summer there with her children and family. She loved the ballet, the orchestra and all things Irish. A first class lady who was always glamorous and well put together. She loved her jewelry and always dressed and conducted herself as a first class lady. She will be greatly missed and her sharp sense of humor and candid remarks will live with us forever. She was an active member of the Catholic Church, a member of the choir, a eucharistic minister, and pre-school parochial teacher at her church.

She was married to the late William Raymond Weidenhammer and they had two children, Helen and Christopher. Her daughter Helen died in 2005 of radical breast cancer.

She is survived by her son, Christopher B Weidenhammer of Wayne Pa, Her Husband Robert Kohl of Harrisburg Pa, Her Grandson L.J. Weidenhammer of Hazleton Pa. Her Sister in Law Joyce Jefferis of West Chester PA.

Her Memorial Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Monday May 18th at 11 AM in St. John Vianney Church, corner of Conshohocken State and Youngsford Rds., Gladwyne, PA, where you may call after 10:30 AM. A Luncheon will follow the Mass. Burial will be private.

"She was a devoted mother and grandmother. A loyal daughter and friend. She will remain with us in our hearts, as she takes her place in paradise with her beloved Husband William Weidenhammer, her beautiful daughter Helen Weidenhammer, and her Parents and Brother"
