John "Jack" Henn: September 7, 1933 – January 29, 2014

Wisdom, grace and integrity are three words that could be associated with Jack Henn. Jack was a man of great convictions and great faith. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who unflinchingly provided help and encouragement to those around him. People were drawn to Jack because of his optimistic personality, his forward thinking and his positive attitude. Jack's patriotism and his love of his country were constant and infectious. He often greeted you with, "Isn't this a great country of ours?" And he always thought it was.

Jack displayed an unshakeable faith in God and his church. He was an active member of several Episcopal churches and was often chosen to serve on important committees in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. People who worked in these groups with Jack marveled at his insightfulness and his ability to get things done.

Jack had great love of the outdoors and the mountains and lakes of his home in Hebron, New Hampshire where he spent time with family and friends.

Jack was a graduate of Princeton University where he captained the football team. He proudly served in the United States Navy and went on to earn an MBA from Harvard University. Jack was a successful businessman. He was 80 years old at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Carol, his children Joan Basile and her husband Chris, Jeb and his wife Eileen and Karen. His stepchildren, John Finkbiner and his wife Amy and Kathy Brown and her husband Chris. His grandchildren, Catherine, Samantha, Andrea and Jake Basile; Ellie and Christopher Henn; Emily Brown. He was pre-deceased by his wife Eleanor.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Seaman's Church Institute of Philadelphia (scphiladelphia.org) or Episcopal Community Services (ecsphilly.org).
