

Joyce Kathryn Lewis

October 4, 1932 - February 8, 2026

Joyce Kathryn Lewis, 93, of Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on February 8, 2026.

Born in October 1932 in West Chester PA, Joyce lived a life defined by her unwavering faith, deep devotion to her family, kindness, and quiet strength. She built a meaningful career in politics and was known for her dedication and leadership, including serving as an alternate delegate to the 1980 Republican National Convention, a delegate to the 1984 Republican National Convention, and for managing the Reagan-Bush headquarters during the 1984 campaign.

Joyce had a gift for making others feel loved and valued, and she truly touched the lives of all who knew her. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.

She is survived by her daughters, Kelly and Kerry (Rod); her granddaughters, Ellen (Shane), Jasmine, and Katy; her step-granddaughters Sarah and Nicole (Brandon) and her greatgrandson, Julian. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Charles Lewis, and her son, Craig.

Joyce found joy in the simple and meaningful things in life. She loved The Ohio State University, elephants, Noah's Ark, and collecting antiques. She had a special talent for crafting, especially stenciling, and could often be found creating beautiful designs on walls, furniture, and handmade cards. She was also an active member of her church, where she sang in the choir and generously gave her time volunteering with children at Cornerstone Christian Academy.

Later in life, Joyce discovered a love of travel and cherished her visits to Scotland, England, and Italy. These experiences brought her great happiness and lasting memories.

A celebration of Joyce's life will be held on April 25, 2026, 2PM at Narberth Presbyterian Church in Narberth, Pennsylvania. She will be laid to rest alongside her husband, Charles, at Arlington National Cemetery in a private family interment.

Joyce's legacy of faith, love, and kindness will live on in the hearts of her family and all who had the privilege of knowing her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Previous Events

Life Celebration

APR 25. 2:00 PM (ET)

Narberth Presbyterian Church
205 Grayling Avenue
Narberth, PA 19072

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the album Album

Chadwick and McKinney Funeral Home - April 10 at 04:45 PM