“ The staff of the Literacy Council of Norristown (LCN) wishes to extend its heartfelt condolences to the family Katharine Dosch, one of our founding members. Since its establishment in 1984, LCN has helped thousands of adults to improve their lives and the lives of their families through upgraded literacy skills. Katharine held many positions during her involvement with LCN, including board member, teacher, tutor, and tutor trainer. Individuals and the community as a whole have benefited enormously as a result of her efforts and we are proud of the difference she made. We will certainly miss her and hope that others will follow her example of serving others.
