“ Cheeks,
You were a great dad and friend. We will miss golfing, working on the antique cars, and having you come visit down in Virginia. You're in a better place now. Say hello to Dot, Nevin, Doris, Pappy, Grammy, Speaker, Susan, and anyone I might have forgotten.

“ Cheeks,

I can't begin to tell you what a great Dad you were to me! I will miss you deeply, but it was time for you to go home to Dot and your family.

It will be comforting to know an angel is watching over me during this time of sorrow.

Love always,

“ *He will be missed.
I loved being a part of his home, listening to his stories and the cars.
He was Mr. Hartman to me as a child but as we matured I became Janie and he became Cheeks - a name I believe his kids gave him.
Carol tells me to quote a friends inturpretation of this occasion - "An Irish Wake for a Flying Duchman" Very well then.
Thank you and God Bless###imported-begin##Jane & Michael
