

Lewis G. Louderback

December 4, 1924 - October 12, 2008

Lewis G. Louderback

of Bryn Mawr, PA, died on Sunday Oct 12, 2008 at age 83. He was former Owner and Chairman of Louderback Transportation Co., and is the beloved husband of Ruth E. Louderback and devoted father of George and Gary Louderback and Diane Reiff; also survived by 9 grandchildren and his brother, Alan Louderback; and was predeceased by his sister Dorothy Jaeger. His Memorial Service will be held on Thurs. Oct. 16, 11am in the Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, 30 E. Athens Ave., Ardmore, PA, where the family will receive guests after 10am. Int. private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to Easter Seals, 3975 Conshohocken Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19131

Tribute Wall

“ Gary and Family: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your Father. He has left your family a legacy of integrity that will endure.

Norma Carper
Merchandising Frontiers, Inc.##imported-begin##Norma Carper##imported-end##

---

October 15, 2008 at 02:40 PM

“ Lew was an American patriot who loved his country and took pride in his Naval service during World Warll Who can forget the huge American flag painted on the wall of his warehouse in King Of Prussia that was a landmark for many travelers.Under a tough exterior was a heart of gold.##imported-begin##Reed Engle##imported-end##

---

October 14, 2008 at 07:11 PM

“ May God's Blessings be yours now at this difficult time and always.

Your father must have been one terrific man to produce such wonderful sons.
Fondly,
Barbara##imported-begin##barbara gallagher##imported-end##

---

October 14, 2008 at 05:09 PM

“ Uncle Lew

We pray for an eternity of peaceful rest in His love. You will never be forgotten.

Love

Lynne, Leonard, John and Sarah##imported-begin##Lynne Louderback Ellis##imported-end##

---

October 13, 2008 at 06:40 PM