

Linda P. Matusow

October 3, 1943 - April 1, 2016

Linda Paul Matusow, of Bryn Mawr, PA died on April 1, 2016 from complications of lung disease. She grew up in Phila. and studied nursing at Bryn Mawr Hospital, where she rose to become head nurse. She was featured in a Philadelphia Inquirer Magazine cover story taking an in depth look at the difficult role of night nurse. She happily retired when her two daughters came along. Her husband, Donald Matusow, a retired lawyer, has been prominent in Philadelphia legal circles. Linda was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who truly enriched the lives of those who were closest to her. She is survived by her husband Donald, her two daughters Tara Amoroso and Pamela Garner, and three grandchildren – Finley, Braydon, and Averey. Friends and relatives are invited to attend Linda's funeral on Friday, April 8, at 11:00 AM at Chadwick & McKinney Funeral Home, 30 East Athens Avenue, Ardmore, PA., where you are invited to call after 10:30. A reception will follow her funeral service. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to A Better Chance in Lower Merion, P.O. Box 213, Ardmore, PA 19003 www.abclowermerion.org
