

Lois A. Cupo

May 17, 1934 - March 2, 2013

Lois Ann Cupo, age 78, died on March 2, 2013, after battling a long illness. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on May 17, 1934, the daughter of the late Wilhelm Anton and Johanna Ernestine Bloeck Kapteina.

She is survived by her loving husband of fifty-four years Ernest P. Cupo, Jr., her sister Eve Mattice, her children Ernesto, Heather, and William Cupo, her niece Joanne Mortimer, and her eight grandchildren, Maile, Althea, Lani, Magdalena, Louisa, Pearl, Bess, and Kerith.

A graduate of the Methodist Hospital Nursing School of Brooklyn, New York, Lois began her career by serving in obstetrics and geriatrics, and went on to work as a Registered Nurse for the Federal Department of Human Services in the Philadelphia Customs House as an occupational health nurse.

She will be remembered as a devoted wife and loving mother, for her kindness, generosity and thoughtfulness, and for her fortitude and perseverance while enduring a difficult illness.

Her life will be celebrated by a local memorial service for neighbors and friends on Sat. April 6, 2013, at 11:00 AM in the Chadwick and McKinney Funeral Home, 30 E. Athens Ave. Ardmore, PA.

Contributions to the Salvation Army would be appreciated in lieu of flowers.
Interment will be in Albany, New York, on April 13, 2013.

Tribute Wall

“ Lois and I were friends for many years in Stamford, NY. Our parents were also friends. I had lost track of her after graduation and never heard from her thereafter. She passed away on the anniversary of my mother's death in 2000. I'm sorry we lost track of each other. I extend my sympathies for your loss and hope she did not suffer too much. Edna Theisselmann Austin”

July 08, 2013 at 10:44 AM

“ Lois and I were classmates in Stamford and our families were friends. My condolences to her family.

Vince Vincent Ruggiero”

July 08, 2013 at 08:29 AM

“ Lois was one of my best friends in high school. I have been looking for her for years. I am so terribly sorry for your loss. She was a lovely friend and i am sorry I am too late. We had a lot of fun together. Arleen arleen clark powers”

July 07, 2013 at 08:58 PM