

Lorraine Winchester

September 25, 1921 - November 14, 2006

Lorraine Winchester (nee Peck) of West Chester, PA died peacefully on November 14, 2006 at the age of 85 surrounded by family and friends.

She is survived by son's Anthony and James, their wives Barbara and Anne, and four grandchildren Christopher, Jessica, Peter and Sally as well as her two brothers Andy and Herb. She was preceded in death by her husband of more than 50 years, Richard and her daughter Anne. Lorraine was born in a small farming town in Western Iowa and attended Coe College on a debating scholarship. She received a Master's Degree in Speech Therapy from Denver University and was a life-long teacher and therapist with nearly 30 years at the Vanguard School for children with learning disabilities. After retirement Lorraine volunteered extensively as a speech therapist for Vanguard and other schools as well as donating individual services to low-income children. Lorraine's memorial will be private and donations in her memory can be made to the Vanguard School.

“ My sons knew Mrs. Winchester at Goshen Friends School. She always had a kind word, an easy smile and a friendly wave. I remember one Christmas, Kyle asked me to make cookies for Mrs. Winchester because she was so nice. They were both sad when I told them about her passing. How wonderful to have touched so many young lives in such a memorable way.##imported-begin##Donna Albani, John and Kyle Hoch##imported-end##
