

Lucy T. Doering

May 8, 1906 - January 27, 2016

Lucy Thomas Doering, of Waverly Heights, Gladwyne, passed away on January 27th, 2016 at Waverly. She was 109. She was born in 1906 in an early Frank Lloyd Wright prairie style house, in Oak Park, Illinois. She attended Vassar College and settled with her husband, Otto C Doering Jr. in Scarsdale, New York, who was a partner in the law firm of Donovan, Leisure, Newton and Irvine in New York City. During World War II he served as General Donovan's executive Officer in the O.S.S. Lucy Doering was an avid outdoors woman, who enjoyed hiking, skiing and supported conservation. She enjoyed three sons; Rogers M. Doering (deceased,) Paul E. Doering, and Otto C. Doering III, 9 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. A private memorial service will be held this summer in the Adirondacks. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Nature Conservancy