

Marjorie L. Boyer

September 3, 1919 - August 9, 2019

MARJORIE E. BOYER (nee Lowry), of Haverford, on August 9, 2019

Born in Philadelphia on September 3, 1919, to Robert W. and Mary E. Lowry, and grew up in the Chestnut Hill area of the city.

Following her graduation from Germantown High School, Marjorie attended Beaver College and later earned a masters degree from Villanova University. She began her teaching career in 1941 in Upper Marlboro, Maryland, later teaching elementary grades in the Colonial School District in Pennsylvania for many years. She is still fondly remembered by many of the students she taught in first grade. Marjorie was a member of Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church. She enjoyed traveling, poetry and most of all loved her family.

Marjorie will be missed by her children Sally Boyer Paulson and her husband Steven, John Lowry Boyer and his wife Irene, James David Boyer, and Mary Boyer Emrich and her husband Richard; her 13 grandchildren Eric, Andrew, Gregory, Karen, Rebecca, Kristin, James, Sara, Laura, Erin, Ian, Richard, Jr. and Douglas, and 12 great-grandchildren.

Service and interment at Northwood Cemetery private.
