“ My name is Elizabeth "Betsy" Morrison Cook. I live in Carrollton, TX. I am one of Dollie Graham's ten nieces and nephews. As a child, I lived close to Dollie's home at 16 School Lane, Ardmore, PA. I lived with my parents, Glenn Morrison and, Virginia Graham Morrison, Dollie's sister. My family moved away to Hagerstown, MD when I was 3. But over the years my family continued to visit Dollie and her mother, Elizabeth C. Graham, as well as other family members in the greater Philadelphia area. I remember that Aunt Doll was one of my liveliest relatives. I always looked forward to visiting her and hanging out with her. I knew we'd always have a good time, and she liked to show me the sights in Ardmore and surrounds. Taking the trolley to "69th Street" in those days was always an adventure. Dollie was hard working but fun-loving, too. And she always managed to pull it off looking effortlessly and oh-so-chic. I can still see her strutting around - Broadway style - singing "Hello Dollie!" Although much of our family has scattered now, Dollie and Grandmother Graham's welcoming home remains - for me - a comforting and tender memory. Rest in peace, dear Aunt Doll.

“ My name is Brendan Fitzgerald. My beloved uncle Bill Graham was one of Dollie's brothers. Bill and my Aunt Avis, his wife, often visited with Dollie and her parents at 16 School Lane in Ardmore. Dollie was very friendly to all of us, including my brother Robert and my Mother Kathleen. I got married in 1965 and moved to the Pittsburgh area. I returned for visits to my family, and continued to see Dollie periodically. My Mother enjoyed her company. I saw her for the last time at the Quadrangle. May she rest in Peace.

“ My name is Glenn Morrison. I live in Washington, DC. I am one of Dollie's ten nieces and nephews. Although my family moved from Ardmore to Hagerstown, Maryland in 1948 (the year I was born), we drove to Ardmore with some regularity to visit our relatives including grandmother, grandfather, aunts, uncles, and cousins. I have many fond memories of staying with Aunt Doll and my grandparents at 16 School Lane. Aunt Doll would take me to 69th Street on the Red Arrow--a thrill for a boy coming to visit from a small town without streetcars!

In later years I had only minimal contact with my relatives in greater Philadelphia, but about ten years ago I reconnected with Aunt Doll and two cousins--Connie and George. Others had moved from the area or passed away. I was able, in recent years, to visit Dollie on Sutton Road and at the Quadrangle. She remained one of the most spirited and life-loving family members I have ever known. She will be missed.

BEST TO ALL,

*Glenn Morrison
