“ Rest easy LULU, you will truly be missed. We will NEVER forget all the great memories we shared; Black and white milkshakes at The Charcoal Pit, the time you got locked out of the house and banged on my window (2nd floor) with a broom lol, your amazing thanksgiving dinners (extra gravy and mashed potatoes), Swiss Chocolate Milk, pigs in a blanket, “Matthew, enunciateeeeeee your words” Notre Dame Blue everything, Sweet Tea, “Jesus, Mary and Joseph” and my favorite “Grandma... will you get me some chocolate milk, my tummy hurts...” I love youuuuuu and you will always be with us ❤️...

“ I first met you in Pennsylvania for Bryan’s friend’s wedding. I loved the time we shared going to lunch and visiting your sister. I remember you reminded me so much of Maureen...so full of life and always saying something to make us laugh. I was so touched when you made it down for our engagement party. When Bryan and I first started dating, you sent a Christmas present down for me. It was an angel pin to watch over me. I have it pinned to the visor in my car 4 years later. I look at it everyday and think of you and rest in the comfort that you are looking down on us.

“ I will never forget the time you gave me a box of junior mints and a large coke and then drop me back off with my parents, I could only imagine me jumping off the walk at such a young age. There was a time you were baby sitting Matt and I while my parents were out of town and Ob (the dog) jumped up on the counter and decided to eat your one pound of expensive chocolate and a large pizza, which at first you thought it was me but after a few minutes we figured it out. You made the best mash potatoes I've ever had even when I would joke with you and ask if it was store bought. You will be truly missed and never forgotten. Until next time. Love Bryan.

Thank you Bryan. I remember the chocolate. Lulu did think you ate the box of candy and I didn't know OB ate the pizza too! Lol. They are together now watching over us. Love you! 🍕🍷🥰🙏❤️🐾

“ My deepest sympathy to all for the loss of such a sweet lady. MaryLou and I ate lunch together when she worked at ACE and helped her with her computer issues. I also visited her several times when I went to see my best friend Sally Frazier who lives across the hall from MaryLou. God Bless you MaryLou.

My condolences to the family of MaryLou. I was one of MaryLou's supervisors at ACE. She will always be remembered for loving her family and her ice cream. She loved my son and always supported his school or sports fundraisers. She made us all laugh and was truly missed when she retired. We kept in touch in the beginning and I would try to reach out to her in later years to see how she was doing. You all are in my prayers.
