“ I am so sad to learn of Milly's passing. I just got a birthday reminder for her, seeing it would be her 99th. When I see that she passed away a month ago, I am heartbroken. She was one of my mother's favorite friends, who also became mine. She was such a smart cookie -- and how much I loved her speaking her mind, never holding back from what was real and saying so. She exemplified truth and honor and kindness. I will never be able to thank her for the support she showed me as my mother declined ... always ready to offer advice and help. I counted on her truthfulness and boldness. Oh Milly, you enriched me mightily. I loved you so!

“ I was Millie's dental hygienist at Penn Dental in Bryn Mawr for the past 14 years. She was always a joy to have as a patient and a very sweet, lovable person. She enjoyed her dental visits and was somewhat of a senior celebrity at our office. Martha accompanied her to her visits and the three of us always have such good conversations. I will miss you Millie. Heaven has gained another angel. Keep smiling, Millie.
