

Nancy Jean McCloskey

July 27, 1933 - February 2, 2015

Nancy Jean McCloskey, 81, died Monday, February 2nd, 2015 at Rittenhouse Hospice in Philadelphia, Pa.

She was born July, 27th 1933 in Brantford, Ontario, Canada, daughter of Hazel Lena and Carter Curtis MacMillan.

She married her high school sweetheart, Richard Vensel McCloskey on August 25th, 1956. She graduated from the University of Rochester School of Nursing in the same year and then earned a P.H.T., "Put Him Through" degree supporting her husband as he completed medical school and residency.

She pursued a fulfilling career in nursing while raising three children. She also found time to teach her children to care for an unending menagerie of horses, cats, dogs, peacocks and other animals as they wandered into her family.

After retiring from nursing she began a second creative career, earning degrees from Drexel University and Parson's School Design. She continued learning into her 70's, taking classes in photography at Delaware Community College.

She spent many happy seasons in the Thousand Islands, N.Y. with her family and friends. She loved to swim in the St. Lawrence River, canoe the waterways looking for loons and to watch sunsets from her porch. Her wonderful photography portfolio is a legacy reflecting her love of nature and family. Those who are lucky enough to have one of her images will find her there and smile with the memories. She loved many and many loved her in return.

Her husband Richard, her three children, Katy, Jenny and Pat, survive her as well as five grandchildren Oren, Grant, Natalie, Daniel and Nicole. We miss her so much.

Her Funeral Service will be held on Sat. Feb. 14th, 2 PM in Washington Memorial Chapel, Route 23, Valley Forge, PA; followed by burial in the Churchyard.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to The Needy Patient's Fund at Wissahickon Hospice.
