“ I just saw your Dad's grave, we always chatted with him when we went to visit my parents at Ss Peter & Paul. He was so proud of his family, a truly nice man.

“ I would often see Nick at S.S. Peter and Paul sitting right by the grave of his wife Marian. He couldn't wait to be with her. Fly with the angels Nick and with your Marian. Rest in Peace.

“ Girls, My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you all. You father was a GREAT man and I always felt a close bond with him as he had a good heart and was a very hard working man who loved his family more than life
My soul is peaceful knowing he has joined the love of his life, Marian, the woman who as he once told me "I smile every time I look at her". I know they are both being kept in the warm loving glow of our Lord in heaven. I pray you find comfort in knowing they are "joined as one" - once again. Peace and comfort to you all. Rose Wyatt
