“ I'm normans son craig I have so many memories of dad the thing I remember the most is how much I loved respected and feared him! I love him for always being there he wasn't much of a hugging mushy kind of guy if he squeezed the back of your neck or punched you in the arm you knew you were loved and I had my neck squeezed plenty and took my share of shots to the arm and respect how could you not respect a man who worked hard raised seven kids when most men would have been long gone there he was falling asleep behind the news paper because he gave us all he had and even though he never hit me I was scared to death when I did something wrong and my mother would say wait until your father gets home! ! Like I said I could go on and on about what my father means to me all I do know is that his suffering is over and with all of the love he carries with him he will be in a better place !!!

“ During a Can Can sale, Norman asked "How in the hell can you beat sales by 300k and only have a 55 SPAH? How is that possible? " I answered, " it must have been the great service ". He laughed and hung up on me.
