

Patricia Willis Cordray

September 6, 1943 - August 30, 2023

Patricia Willis Cordray, born on September 6, 1943 and died on August 30, 2023.

Patricia W. Cordray (Pat), beloved mother and grandmother, passed away peacefully on August 30, 2023, at the age of 79, following a brief battle with pancreatic cancer. A longtime resident of Berwyn, PA, and more recently Hershey's Mill (West Chester), and Daylesford Crossing (Paoli), Pat is survived by children Peter Cordray (Wayne) and Diane Cordray (Rockville, MD), their spouses Kelly and Doug, and 5 beloved grandchildren, Molly, Will, Madeleine, Caroline and Henry.

She was predeceased by husband William Henry Cordray Jr., parents Thomas Ellsworth and Mary Louise Willis and sister Judith Diane Pincus.

Pat was born on an Army base in Augusta, Georgia and grew up in Lansdowne and Devon, PA. She graduated from Friends' Central School and Beaver College. She married Henry Cordray on April 3, 1965 and they lived on the beach in Ocean City, NJ before moving to Berwyn in 1972.

Pat taught at the Tarleton School in Devon then joined Cordray Corporation as an administrator, continuing there until 2020. Her contributions to the family business, working with her husband and son, were immeasurable.

She was a longtime member of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and lead the Wednesday Night Tutoring Program there for many years to benefit both local high schoolers and students from North Philadelphia.

She is most remembered as a devoted mother, adoring grandmother, avid reader and cook.

Her Memorial Service will be held at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church, 625 Montgomery Ave., Bryn Mawr, PA, 19010 on Saturday, September 23 at 10:30 am.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church Tutoring Program in Pat's honor (625 Montgomery Ave, Bryn Mawr, PA 19010).
